

Andaman Princess Resort and Spa

The Andaman Princess Resort and Spa on the idyllic island of Koh Kor Khao is the perfect place for a memorable holiday in one of Thailand's most beautiful regions. At this exquisite resort, guests can indulge in the pleasure of pure relaxation or explore the treasures of the Andaman Sea.

The experience of staying in the Andaman Princess Resort and Spa is like a dream come true. This luxurious contemporary beach resort is located beside a privately owned beach on one of the most beautiful islands in southern Thailand. Koh Kor Khao is easily reached by the resort's own express ferry from the mainland.

Luxury Accommodation

Relaxed luxury is the theme of this charming beachfront resort. With only 62 deluxe rooms, four suites and 16 individual villas set in tropical gardens, the emphasis is on peace and privacy for guests. Combining contemporary decor with traditionally crafted local materials, each guest room has its private balcony overlooking the Andaman Sea, lush gardens or swimming pool. Amenities include satellite TV with stereo and DVD system, IDD telephone, high-speed internet access, fridge, mini-bar, in-room safe, and tea and coffee making facilities. The spacious bathrooms are beautifully appointed. In addition, suites and villas offer individual butler service plus private dining and spa treatments.

The Thai Heritage Villas feature classic décor, high ceiling and full length bay windows allowing for a panoramic view across the bay. The 65 square metre villas include a living area bathroom with separate bathtub and Jacuzzi, and private terrace for relaxation.

Dine in Style

All-day dining is available at the Andaman Princess Resort and Spa. The Beachside Restaurant offers an array of delicious seafood dishes and oriental cuisine for dinner while the Lobby Bar & Lounge serves beverages and light snacks complimented by live music in the evening. Room service is also available 24 hours a day for breakfast, snacks or full meals.

The Spa's the Star

Improve your wellbeing and relieve the stress and anxiety of a modern life in the resort's exclusive spa. Therapies and massage techniques are available in traditional Thai and international style. The resort's dedicated team of professional staff is highly trained in their art, and in the use of natural beauty products, many of which are based on local flora and tropical fruits.

Cruising Phang Nga Bay

The resort offers its guests the opportunity to explore the breathtaking Phang Nga Bay National Marine Park and the Similan Islands. A range of excursions are available in the resort's purpose-built luxury cruise yachts, each capable of carrying up to 140 passengers in total comfort and providing five star service onboard.

Location

The Andaman Princess Resort and Spa is just one hour by road from Phuket International Airport, or an hour and a half from Krabi Airport, both of which are served by frequent flights from Bangkok.
